

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION BOARD OF NSW

Information, education and training

Speakers

We can provide an expert speaker for your community event, seminar, workshop, meeting or conference. We can speak on:

- your rights and responsibilities under anti-discrimination law
- lodging a complaint with the Anti-Discrimination Board
- dealing with harassment and sexual harassment

We can adapt any of our talks to suit the size and needs of your group. We can cater our information for specific audiences such as young people, parents, seniors, Aboriginal communities, people with a disability and people from different cultural backgrounds.

Training for employers and service providers

Our experienced Senior Workplace Relations Consultants can provide training to assist in promoting diversity, embedding best practice policies and procedures, supporting cultural change and achieving legal compliance. We can customise the training to suit your specific industry and organisational needs.

We provide both on-site training and seminars. Typical sessions include:

- Diversity and inclusion
- Bullying and harassment prevention
- Preventing disability discrimination
- Skills for Contact Officers
- Grievance handling
- Case law update

Information stalls

We provide information stalls for conferences, careers days and community events such as International Day of People with a Disability, NAIDOC events, Law Week, the Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Fair Day, Yabun Festival, Harmony Day and Sydney Homeless Connect.
